MNCH Annual Dinner

Sustaining Earth— How Our Past Can Guide Our Future

Thursday, April 25

5:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Mark your calendars to join us for an evening of food, drink, and celebration of connections to the deep past. MNCH Director Todd Braje will discuss archaeology's incredible potential to help us understand, evaluate, and remediate the environmental challenges we now face.

Check your member e-news or our website for more information and to purchase tickets.

Tickets go on sale March 4.

Sunflower Sea Stars and the Health of Kelp Forests

Thursday, February 1 | 6:00 p.m.

Sea star wasting disease killed 90% of Oregon's sunflower sea star population. Without their natural predators, the sea urchin population exploded and kelp forests collapsed.

Join Dr. Sarah Graven for a discussion of her work to understand sunflower sea star recovery and help the kelp.

Included with regular admission; free for MNCH members and UO ID card holders. Show your Oregon Trail or other EBT card for an admission discount.

Outliers and Outlaws

Stories from the Eugene Lesbian History Project

CLOSING WEEKEND CELEBRATION

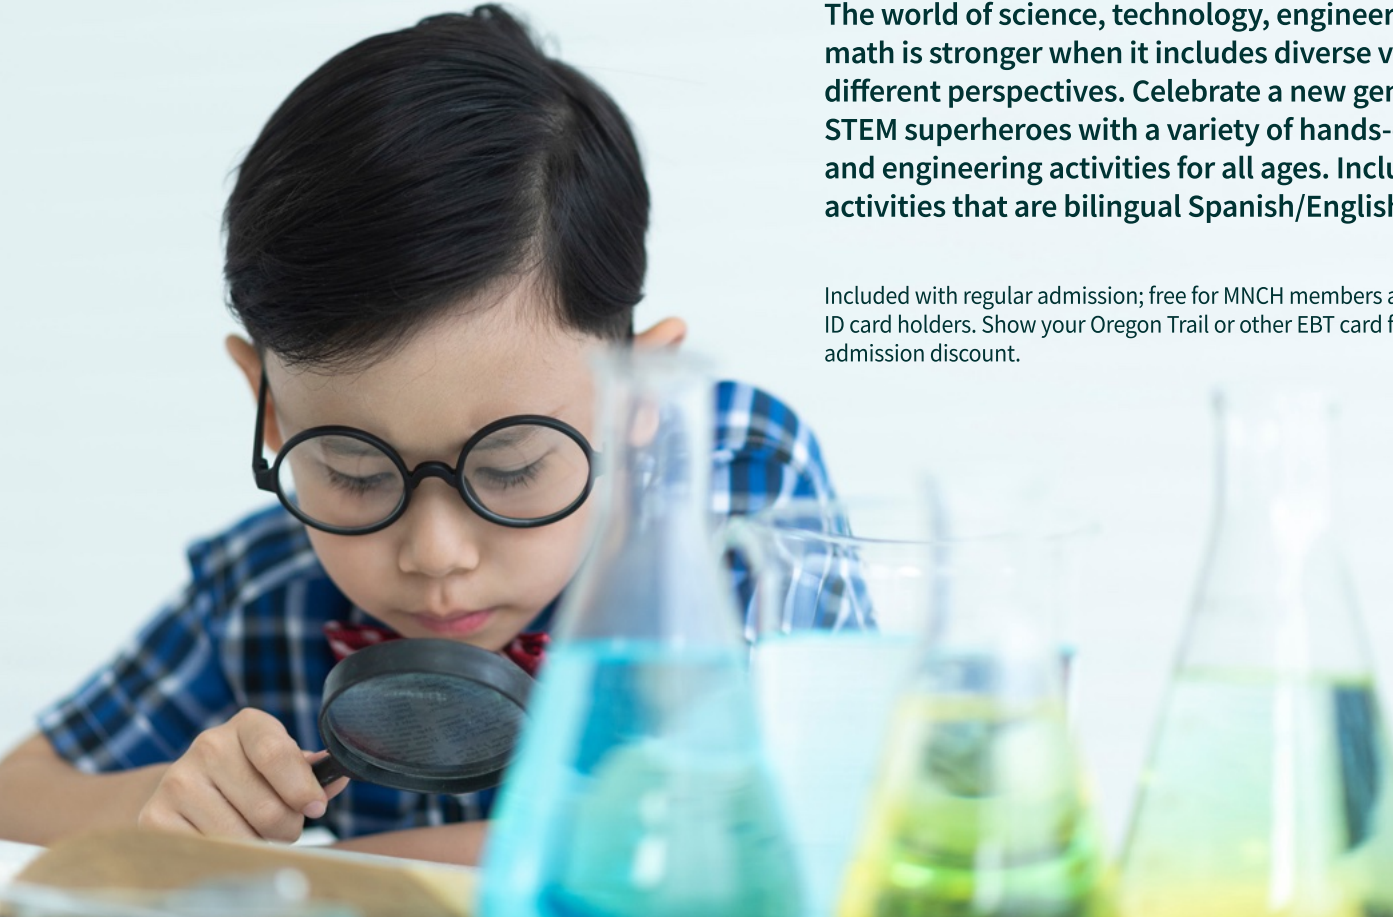

Saturday, February 17, and Sunday, February 18

Join us at the museum to celebrate and send off Outliers and Outlaws—Stories from the Eugene Lesbian History Project. Enjoy light refreshments all weekend long.

Bring the whole family on Saturday to enjoy a special family day!

Included with regular admission; free for MNCH members and UO ID card holders. Show your Oregon Trail or other EBT card for an admission discount.

Family Day

STEM is for Everyone!

Saturday, February 17 | 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

The world of science, technology, engineering, and math is stronger when it includes diverse voices and different perspectives. Celebrate a new generation of STEM superheroes with a variety of hands-on science and engineering activities for all ages. Includes activities that are bilingual Spanish/English.

Included with regular admission; free for MNCH members and UO ID card holders. Show your Oregon Trail or other EBT card for an admission discount.

Basketry Workshop with Brenda Brainard

Sunday, February 25
10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Join Brenda Brainard, member of the Confederated Tribes of Coos, Lower Umpqua, and Siuslaw Indians, for a day-long basketry workshop. Participants will learn basic weaving techniques while creating their own cedar and sedge basket necklace.

Materials—including cedar and sedge, beads, and a small abalone button—will be provided. Participants are welcome to bring their own special embellishments, such as buttons, charms, or small feathers.

The workshop fee is $125 for MNCH members and $150 for the public. Space is limited and preregistration is required.

Register now on our website.
